Impaired Driving Threatens Everyone

Statistics show that impaired driving rises significantly during holiday periods, with December typically being high on the list. Reducing alcohol-related traffic injuries and fatalities is a top priority of the 6th Area Support Group. Sobriety checkpoints will be set-up on all Stuttgart military installations and on the German economy throughout the holiday season. Support December as National Drunk and Drugged Driving Prevention Month. Choose to drive sober and safe.

Community Bank Ready For Euro

Starter kits containing a variety of Euro coins will be available for sale at local Community Banks after Dec. 17, while supplies last. The cost per kit is 20 marks or €10.23. Beginning Jan. 1, the Community Bank ATMs in Germany and the Netherlands will dispense Euro bills in increments of €20.00. Euro bills will not be available at the bank until Jan. 2.

Deutsche Mark coins can be turned in now in exchange for Deutsche Mark bills or the U.S. Dollar equivalent. Community Banks will have a table set aside with coin wrappers and rollers to make this process easier. If you wish to have Euro in exchange you will need to wait until January 2002. Deutsche Mark bills and coins will be accepted for turn-in through Feb. 28. All coins other than Deutsche Mark will need to be turned in or spent in the country of origin since these coins cannot be reconverted at the Community Bank.

Beginning with December 2001 end-of-month payments, standing payment orders will be converted to Euro at the applicable fixed rate, 1.95583 Deutsche Marks = 1 Euro. If you wish to change your current payment to a specific Euro amount simply visit your local Community Bank office and complete a change request. If you have further questions, ask your local Community Bank customer service representative or go to the Web site www.stuttgart.army.mil/weeklyupdates/bulletin.htm.

SECTION II ANNOUNCEMENTS

Support Deployed Troops Via E-mail

The Department of Defense announced an alternative to Any Servicemember and Operation Dear Abby, which were suspended indefinitely in the wake of anthrax mail attacks. The Navy has developed a Web-based alternative benefiting members of all services.

The program can be reached at www.LIFELines2000.org or anyservicemember.navy.mil. Those who want to send a message of support or holiday greeting to military service members will find a simple process for delivering messages at these sites. Those sending a message, who wish to receive a response, may include a return e-mail address. Other alternatives for supporting deployed service members were announced in an Oct. 30 news release, available at www.defenselink.mil/news/Oct2001 by selecting Other Ways to Get Behind Troops.

PAHS Yearbook Ads for Sale

Patch American High School is selling ads for the 2001-2002 school yearbook. This is a great opportunity to support our local school and the students, especially this year's senior class. The deadline to purchase an ad is Dec. 19. If you, your office or your unit would like to be a yearbook sponsor, call Judy Bohler at 430-7191 or 07156-351-640 in the evenings.
